Mr. Adams joined Health Canada in 1985 as a Chemist in the Winnipeg Manitoba Laboratory. He subsequently worked as a Laboratory Specialist in the Winnipeg and Burnaby B.C. laboratories before moving into laboratory management at HC's Dartmouth Nova Scotia laboratory. Andrew was accepted into HC's Science Management Development Program in 1996 and completed assignments with the Legislative Renewal Secretariat and the Therapeutic Products Programme before leaving HC in 2000 to become Director, Ontario Laboratory Network with the Canadian Food Inspection Agency. Andrew returned to HC in 2007 as Director, Drug Analysis Service in the Drug Strategy and Controlled Substances Directorate (DSCSD). He was also Director, Office of Controlled Substances also with DSCSD prior to joining the Therapeutic Products Directorate as Director, Bureau of Pharmaceutical Sciences.
